

AGENDA

Coalition Meeting

Green Jobs/Green Homes NY Campaign

1199 SEIU, Albany, NY

September 3, 2008, 12pm – 2:30pm

- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| 12:00 – 12:30 | Lunch & Materials Distribution |
| 12:30 – 12:40 | Welcome & Introductions |
| 12: 40 – 12:50 | Overview of General Campaign Plan
Dave Palmer, Campaign Director, Working Families Organization |
| 12:50 – 1:10 | Presentation of Policy Brief
Emmaia Gelman, Senior Policy Organizer, Center for Working Families |
| 1:10 – 1:25 | Q &A |
| 1:25 – 2:05 | Breakout Discussions (topics below) |
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Workforce & Small Business Development
Facilitator: Rebecca Lurie, Consortium for Worker Education
Discussion of proposed strategies, pitfalls and solutions for ensuring that green jobs are good, career-building jobs that are open to first-time workers, union workers and small/local businesses.
• Strategizing for Environmental & Economic Impact on Communities
Facilitator: Eric Walker, PUSH Buffalo
Discussion of policy approaches to defining, achieving and measuring impacts on communities: without overburdening the program with requirements, how can we design it to drive better health outcomes, neighborhood revitalization, etc.
• On-Bill Recovery: Solving Issues for Utilities and Consumers
Facilitator: Emmaia Gelman, Center for Working Families
Discussion and strategizing around remaining questions about “on-bill recovery” as a tool for NYS residential retrofit policy. |
| 2:05 – 2:25 | Brief Report-Backs from Each Group |
| 2:25 – 2:30 | Recap of Next Steps for Campaign
Dave Palmer, Campaign Director, Working Families Organization |